(a) whether the Prime Minister spelt out a vision to turn Mumbai into Sanghai of India;

(b) if so, whether the Government of Maharashtra has submitted a blue print for realising the said vision, if so, the sector-wise lay-out thereof; and

(c) Government's response thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) This Ministry is not aware of any such statement. However, Prime Minister made an announcement on 15th August, 2003 that a plan would be drawn up together with the States Government for making Mumbai slum free in the next 10 years. In the first phase, over 1,00,000 slum dwelling families would be rehabilitated in good housing complexes over the next 2-3 years.

(b) and (c) This Ministry has not received any blue-print spelling out vision to turn Mumbai into Shanghai of India from Government of Maharashtra. However, an all party delegation led by Chief Minister of Maharashtra met Prime Minister on issues relating to development of Mumbai on 21st August, 2003 in the chamber of Lok Sabha Speaker at Parliament House. The Government of Maharashtra projected a total cost of Rs. 12,000 crores seeking central assistance of Rs. 6,000 crores for the proposed package for revival of Mumbai City.

Further, to comply with the Prime Minister's announcement made on 15th August, 2003, this Ministry has requested the State Government of Maharashtra to prepare a comprehensive plan for making Mumbai slum free.

The Government of India has also, drawn up a proposal for relocation of slum dwellers encroaching upon Government land at Mumbai in the available surplus Salt Pan land at Mumbai, which are proposed to be transferred from the Department of Industrial Policy & Promotion to the Department of Urban Development.

Encroachment on Public Land

628. DR. ALLADI P. RAJKUMAR: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that 29 plots meant for schools, hospitals and dispensaries have been encroached in Delhi;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the encroachment has taken place after the plots were handed over to the Government of Delhi by DDA;

(c) if so, the reasons therefor; and

(d) the efforts made to get these plots free from encroachment?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT AND POVERTY ALLEVIATION (SHRI BANDARU DATTATRAYA): (a) to (d) The Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi has reported that of the 13 sites meant for schools which were allotted to its Directorate of Education by the Delhi Development Authority, complete possession could not be handed over by the Delhi Development Authority due to encroachment. It has further reported that some portion of land at hospital plot at Vasant Kunj and another at Desh Bandhu Gupta Raod, Karol Bagh has been encroached upon. Both these hospital sites encroachments have taken place after the possession of plots was handed over to the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi by the Delhi Development Authority.The reasons cited for encroachments after taking over possession by Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi are as follows:

(i) The plot was encroached by Jhuggi dwellers over-night in case of land at Desh Bandhu Gupta Road.

(ii) Ownership disputes by the original landowner with Delhi Development Authority in case of land at Vasant Kunj.
